

Photo first appeared in the May 14, 2009 New Hampshire Union Leader
Reprint courtesy of the New Hampshire Union Leader

COURTESY

The law firm of Sheehan Phinney Bass and Green recently donated $10,000 to help build the Manchester World War II Monument; the donation was made in honor of the firm's founding partners, each of whom served in the armed forces during World War II. Pictured are, from left, Joe DiBrigida, the firm's president and managing director; Mike Lopez of the World War II Memorial Committee; and Attorney Bob Dastin.